

Jonathon Hudson - Vice President, Programs and Development

Jonathan is an energy efficiency professional with over 10 years of project management and development experience and seven years of experience managing people and teams.

He has shown success in building relationships across the industry, informing innovative program design, and developing projects that are delivered on-time and on-budget.

Jonathan is a demonstrated strategic thinker, team builder and leader who holds a master's in resource and environmental Management.

Jonathan is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP) and a Certified Energy Manager (CEM).

